OTHER NOTES/COMMENTS TO HELP THE NEW ADOPTIVE FAMILY: Raven needs a little time to become the fantastic dog I know she can be. She is very willing to learn, but is still a bit timid. She needs a gentle hand and lots of praise, as she is not quite sure what is expected of her yet. She is super sweet and really wants to please. She loves to get belly rubs and wants to be right in on the action with our grey. She loves her foster dad and follows him around the house. Raven is starting to play more with our grey and with us. She chatters sometimes, now it is more excitement than nervousness. She will collect her toys and put them in the crate. She likes to sleep with a stuffy, but I am very careful with that. She will chew them up if allowed. She is still a puppy and sometimes chews on things.

Gentle No works.
