Al continues to be a happy, healthy greyhound. Al has shown no more signs of worms since 3-6 (Rec Heartguard on 3-9). No problems with squeak toys as play is supervised. Al continues to become more playful, with this, Al playbites, very seldom, but it always is corrected, not encouraged. Circle & individual training are going well. We continue to work on sit w/o going directly down. Al's progressing as we advance to sit & stay, and ^{we} are encouraged he will be as successful as he is in his down & stay. Al is fair on steps preferring to leap the last couple of steps on decline. We are teaching him to slow his pace and not to jump. Al loves the outdoors when its warm and sunny, but the exact opposite if its cold and/or windy w/ rain. Al's facial expressions are very funny, and direct with his thoughts. It's a good thing he can't talk as I'm sure I'd be getting yelled at. Overall Al's progress is on schedule and to our satisfaction. He continues to be a lovable greyhound who's eager to please.
