After one week of Circle Training Doc continues to excel, gain more confidence in himself and become a more well rounded dog. He is the smartest dog I've yet to train. He knows all required commands already, (AND VERY WELL AT THAT!). He is a great walker, heels superbly and lots of fun to be with. His fear of crowds is almost gone now. "Doc" is well socialized and loves attention. He plays well with other dogs also.

This morning we noted that his left rear leg is sore and he is limping a bit. This happened THREE times just after he exited his crate, then his limp went away after he walked in the outside pen for a while. we will be monitoring his left rear leg for now.

Doc is a keeper for sure, whoever gets him will get a * four star dog!
