Destiny has a room mate (Twister) They both get along great. The only thing we have seen is Destiny has a little aggression with her food and Toy's. To get her Toy away we put down a treat and after she puts her Toy down we can have it. She is a good Grey. When walking around she has no problem greeting inmates and letting them pet and hug her. She is doing very well with her circle training and commands. She set well, and down's well, she is working on stay at this time. She has tender feet and does not walk well on gravel or stones, but doing better. She does not like loud noise. She is eating well but always hungry, two times a day 1 1/2 cups dry. She is now playing with the pack in the exercise pen. She is a loving Grey, good natured and full of love. Some family will really get a Great Grey. No health problems at this time.

Thank You!
